

Thornton Heath Nursery School provides education and care for children aged between two and four years old. The school is led and managed by The Pegasus Academy Trust for the London Borough of Croydon.

Thornton Heath Nursery is a vibrant, oversubscribed school that offers the very best early years education to the local community. Our school benefits from exciting, spacious learning environments, fantastic resources and a highly committed, dedicated staff team. Our most recent Ofsted inspection graded THNS as 'good' with 'outstanding' Leadership and Management and we have recently been graded as outstanding by the local authority.

This is an exciting time to join an Early Years setting as we start a new journey with the revised statutory framework from September 2021.

We currently have a vacancy for a full-time teacher from September 2021 / January 2022.

All applicants must have Qualified Teacher Status, Early Years Professional Status or Early Years Teacher Status.

Please note this position is not suitable for a NQT (Newly Qualified Teacher)

We are looking for someone with:

- a thorough understanding of childhood development
- knowledge of the EYFS curriculum
- excellent numeracy and literacy skills
- the ability to use ICT to support learning.
- the ability to relate well to children and adults
- the ability to self-evaluate learning needs and actively seek learning opportunities
- the ability to effectively lead a team, understanding classroom roles and responsibilities and their own position within these.
