

Thornton Heath Nursery School provides education and care for children aged between two and four years old. The school is led and managed by The Pegasus Academy Trust for The London Borough of Croydon.

Thornton Heath Nursery is a vibrant, oversubscribed school that offers the very best early years education to the local community. Our school benefits from exciting, spacious learning environments, fantastic resources and a highly committed, dedicated staff team. Our most recent Ofsted inspection graded THNS as 'good' with 'outstanding' Leadership and Management and we have recently been graded as outstanding by the local authority.

We currently have a vacancy for a full-time Early Years Educator (36 hours a week) from April 2023, term time only.

All applicants should have had previous experience of working with children in the Early Years Foundation Stage and have a NVQ Level 3 qualification or higher.

We are looking for someone with:

- a thorough understanding of early childhood development and learning and the EYFS curriculum
- excellent numeracy and literacy skills
- the ability to use ICT to support learning
- the ability to relate well to children and adults -the ability to self-evaluate learning needs and actively seek learning opportunities
- the ability to work constructively as part of a team, understanding classroom roles and responsibilities and own position within these.

Salary range : Grade 6, point 18-20 (pro rata)

This position is subject to an enhanced disclosure.

If you are interested in this post, please contact Caroline Diop in the nursery office on 020 8684 0494 or email admin@thns.org and we will send you an application pack. If you would like to visit us before making an application, please contact Caroline Diop to arrange a time and date.

Closing date: 20.03.2023 – 12 noon

Shortlisting: 20.03.2023

Interview : Week beginning 27.03.2023

Thank you for your interest

Jenette Indarsingh

(Head of Nursery)